Welcome

I am delighted that you are considering joining our Cambridge House team. This recruitment pack includes information about our organisation and this role that I hope you will find useful.

With a dedicated and innovative team, tackling poverty, social inequity and social injustice has been our mission at Cambridge House since 1889. We work to tackle social exclusion and enable people to transition out of crisis and progress towards independence.

Our vision is of a society without poverty where all people are valued, treated equally and lead fulfilling and productive lives. Our activities are split into two areas - frontline services to support people to stabilise their lives and progress; and a research and knowledge exchange to support the development of the most effective social policy and practice.

Law Centre

Free, independent, and expert legal services in housing, employment, discrimination and welfare benefits law alongside crisis mitigation support.

Independent Advocacy

Statutory Care Act, Mental Health Act and Mental Capacity Act advocacy for adults and children.

Safer Renting

Specialist advice, support, and advocacy for vulnerable private rented sector tenants affected by criminal landlords.

Youth Empowerment

Investing in young people so they thrive as adults.

Disabled Peoples' Empowerment

Supporting disabled children and adults to take control of their own lives and futures.

Research and knowledge exchange

Activities that capture local knowledge, insights and lived experience of 'what works' to develop innovative solutions to poverty, social inequity, and social injustice.

We value diversity and warmly welcome applications from disabled people, the LGBTQ+ communities, people from Black, Asian, and ethnic minority backgrounds and candidates who shared lived experience with our service users.

If you would like to be part of this very special organisation and believe that you can contribute to our mission, we welcome an application from you. For more information about us, please visit our website www.ch1889.org.

Yours sincerely

Karin Woodley CBE
Chief Executive

Our Camberwell Incredibles Service

The Camberwell Incredibles is a unique community arts service for adults (19+) living with moderate to profound learning disabilities and complex needs. This is a fun, activity-led service. The group uses a wide range of artistic and creative approaches to develop independence, self-confidence, and communication skills.

We focus on alleviating loneliness and enhancing mental health through creative expression and community engagement. Our service users produce wonderfully bizarre and spectacular performances and events every year. They have also produced films and books that have been used as learning tools internationally.

Our Impact:

1. Increased participation in the community
2. Improved relationships and enhanced social connections
3. Improved communication skills
4. Increased confidence and self-expression.
5. Maximised independence and increased life skills
6. Increased feelings of pride and empowerment
7. Increased agency
8. Improved access to wellbeing activities
9. Improved personal health and hygiene

Everyone in the Camberwell Incredibles is seen as having something valuable to contribute. Our approach is person-centred, so any activities are chosen and led by the interests of the group members. Over the years we have put on art exhibitions, parades, a circus, a magic show, a disco, summer and winter fairs and posh tea parties. All of these celebrate and highlight the uniqueness of each of the group members.

Our holistic approach means we work closely with the parents and carers of our group members. We support families to resolve problems at home, we work with them to better understand behaviours and how to deal with them. We create visual tools and communication aides for carers to help create routines, support learning, and improve care and safety at home.

Where appropriate, we also facilitate and broker volunteer and work opportunities for our group members, helping them to broaden their networks and independence in new environments.

We believe that everyone deserves to have joy in their lives, and this is central to everything we do.

“The group is the heart of the community, and they have a presence and belonging.”
(Relative of Camberwell Incredibles group member)

“The creative ventures of the Camberwell Incredibles deserve a world-wide platform that will inspire others during a time when we all need hope and inspiration.”
(Carer of Camberwell Incredibles group member)

Job Purpose

As a member of Cambridge House's Empowerment and Inclusion Team, led by the Head of Service, this role is:

- i) Part of a dynamic, dedicated, and newly expanding team.
- ii) Uses the arts and creative activities and approaches to provide long-term, holistic, and person-centred support to adults with a range of learning disabilities and complex needs.
- iii) Involves working closely with a group of around 12 adults to build trusting, creative, joyful and empowering relationships.
- iv) Is responsive and service-user-led, creating a space to learn and share best practices, and driving systemic change.

Key Duties

1. Delivery

- a) Engage, empower, and support adults with learning disabilities and complex needs to have joyful and fulfilling experiences, and meaningful and enriching social connections.
- b) Facilitate and support the delivery of varied and creative weekly group activities that are led by the interests, and respond to the needs, of group members.
- c) Utilise a variety of creative, arts-based learning tools and wellbeing activities to engage service users and facilitate the core aims of the service, including, but not limited to: Active Participation in the Community; Art and Self-Expression; Independence and Life Skills; Specialist Communication Skills; Speaking Up and Empowerment; Informed Choice; Physical Health, Fitness, and Nutrition; Mental Health and Wellbeing.
- d) Work closely and collaboratively with all members of the Camberwell Incredibles team, including staff, volunteers, and service users across all service days to ensure a unified, reliable, safe and professional service.

- e) Work closely with parents/carers to develop a strong understanding of service users' behaviours, triggers, needs, and challenges to ensure relevant, responsive, and holistic support and respite for group members and their families.
- f) Oversee support to group members in all aspects of their physical and personal care when necessary, maintaining their safety, dignity, privacy, and independence.
- g) Support the Team Leader with recruitment drives, outreach, and publicity.

2. Partnership Responsibilities

- a) Support the Team Leader with programme logistics with a particular emphasis on risk assessments, health and safety, safeguarding, and data protection.
- b) Support the referral process for new service users, facilitating initial visits and taster days, and liaising with social workers, parents/carers, and relevant contacts throughout the process.
- c) Assist the Team Leader in building positive working partnerships with related organisations, statutory and specialist services, funders and supporters.
- d) Publicise and promote the work of Cambridge House and the Disabled People's Empowerment services.

3. Monitoring and Evaluation

- a) Liaise with, and gather feedback from, service users, parents/carers, volunteers, and partner organisations to ensure delivery continues to be responsive, relevant, and engaging.
- b) Complete all administrative tasks associated with the role and maintain accurate records on our AdvicePro database.
- c) Record and refer any Safeguarding concerns appropriately and in accordance with Cambridge House Policies and Procedures.
- d) Support the Team Leader, Project Lead, and Head of Service with monitoring and evaluation processes, data capture and impact assessment, including surveys, interviews, and case studies.

General Responsibilities

- 1. To keep abreast of the overall work of Cambridge House.
- 2. To be self-servicing and competent in the use of IT software.
- 3. To participate in regular supervisions and an annual appraisal, and to be committed to one's own professional development.
- 4. To participate in internal/external meetings as required, to attend conferences and other functions, and to contribute to general management decision making as necessary.
- 5. To comply with all of Cambridge House's corporate policies and procedures.
- 6. To carry out any other duties commensurate with the role.
- 7. To work occasional unsociable hours (evenings and weekends).
- 8. Travel across, and on occasions, outside of London.

This job description is provided as a guide to the role. It is not intended to be an exhaustive description of duties and responsibilities. It will be subject to periodic revision as the emphasis on and ways of working within the role changes.
