Welcome

I am delighted that you are considering joining our Cambridge House team. This recruitment pack includes information about our organisation and this role that I hope you will find useful.

With a dedicated and innovative team, tackling poverty, social inequity and social injustice has been our mission at Cambridge House since 1889. We work to tackle social exclusion and enable people to transition out of crisis and progress towards independence.

Our vision is of a society without poverty where all people are valued, treated equally and lead fulfilling and productive lives. Our activities are split into two areas - frontline services to support people to stabilise their lives and progress; and a research and knowledge exchange to support the development of the most effective social policy and practice.

Law Centre

Free, independent, and expert legal services in housing, employment, discrimination and welfare benefits law alongside crisis mitigation support.

Independent Advocacy

Statutory Care Act, Mental Health Act and Mental Capacity Act advocacy for adults and children.

Safer Renting

Specialist advice, support, and advocacy for vulnerable private rented sector tenants affected by criminal landlords.

Youth Empowerment

Investing in young people so they thrive as adults.

Disabled Peoples' Empowerment

Supporting disabled children and adults to take control of their own lives and futures.

Research and knowledge exchange

Activities that capture local knowledge, insights and lived experience of 'what works' to develop innovative solutions to poverty, social inequity, and social injustice.

We value diversity and warmly welcome applications from disabled people, the LGBTQ+ communities, people from Black, Asian, and ethnic minority backgrounds and candidates who shared lived experience with our service users.

If you would like to be part of this very special organisation and believe that you can contribute to our mission, we welcome an application from you. For more information about us, please visit our website www.ch1889.org.

Yours sincerely

Karin Woodley CBE
Chief Executive

Our Safer Renting Service

Our Mission and Values

Safer Renting fights to strengthen the rights and provide access to justice for people exploited by criminal landlords. We aim to make private renting safe for all.

Context /Background

The Private Rented Sector (PRS) accounts for 27% of all households in London (2019), the highest share since the 1970s and a higher proportion than households in social housing (23% in 2019). Affordability of private renting has deteriorated sharply as has the quality and standards of rented spaces. The average space per person in the PRS has dropped from 31m² to 25m² in 2019.

The PRS reflects the massive inequalities in London's distribution of income and wealth. A small minority of renters enjoy new luxury developments while large numbers of low-income households pay high rents for sub-standard housing. This end of the market has some of the worst conditions in London with severe overcrowding and insecure or no tenancies with often inadequate and shared essential amenities. Landlords exploit the desperation of renters, often splitting family homes into houses in multiple occupation without even meeting the legal required standards.

The PRS market is rife with illegal eviction and our research shows that homelessness has risen by 40%.

The government's 2016 manifesto pledged reform, with the promise of a Renters' Reform Bill. It specifically promised abolition of Section 21, so-called 'no fault' evictions but progress has been extremely slow.

Our Approach

Safer Renting is at the frontline of combating this illegal behaviour by working closely with local authorities, statutory bodies, charitable funders and academic institutions to:

- Support and advocate for tenants in the 'shadow' private rented sector
- Produce awarding winning research to influence government and social policy
- Provide training and forums for other professionals on best practice

During a turbulent period for the charitable sector, Safer Renting has attracted unprecedented external funding and support from a diverse range of charitable funders and new partnerships who understand the current challenges and think Safer Renting is best placed to combat them.

We now need a range of committed and motivated individuals to continue delivering our mission
